The Parish Council

Parish Council is the administrative body of a parish elected by its stewards for the purpose of working together with the Parish Priest in fulfilling the mission and goals of the parish.

Historically, clergy and laity have worked together in dealing with matters of the Church's life. The Parish Council is an example of the synergy of clergy and laity; it is a vehicle for implementing the ongoing mission of the Church and planning the necessary strategies, policies, procedures, and activities that will enable the Parish to move forward in accomplishing God's work.

The Parish Council is elected to serve a special ministry that requires total love, loyalty, and dedication to Christ and His Church. Parish Council members are official representatives of the Church and thus are expected to exert every effort to exemplify its sacred character and spirit. Members of the Parish Council assumed three basic obligations that will guide this ministry:

1. To understand, live by, and uphold the tenets, teachings, and traditions of the Orthodox Church;
2. To understand and abide by the Regulations as set forth by the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of Canada through the Clergy-Laity Assembly.
3. To live by and uphold their oath of office by utilizing your God-given time, talents, and treasures for the spiritual progress and advancement of the parish.

Parish Council members serve as role models for parishioners and must take their ministry very seriously. They lead by example by attending Church and parish events, and regularly participating in the sacramental life of the Church. By doing so, they have a powerful effect on the overall life of the community.
